

Case of a child

Area police office of Duhabi found a boy named as Nishan Rai in a bad condition. They guessed the child's age to be 9-10. According to the police, the boy was with book in his bag roaming in Duhabi area checkpoint. They brought the boy to Duhabi home with a recommendation letter to Duhabi home to keep the child until his family members are found.

Duhabi home also made some effort to find the child's family. In this process the following information were found:

1. The boy is the younger brother of Pramila Rai who is living in Duhabi home since 2015.
2. The boy was living in Biratnagar with his elder sister.
3. The sister of the boy had a very weak economic condition in her family and has two sons whom she cannot provide proper care, nutritious food and education. In such case, Nishan Rai was neglected by his sister from proper care and basic needs and therefore, he ran away from home.
